

COMPARATIVES

Mark each correct sentence with a "C". If the sentence is unclear or ungrammatical, correct it.

1. This sandwich is more better than that one.

---

2. Since there are only two reasons for an excused absence, we should decide which one is best.

---

3. Rachel fell off her bike and is lucky she wasn't hurt more worse.

---

4. This is the worst winter we've had in years.

---

5. I'm doing even worse in math this year than last.

---

6. She looks much better.

---

7. She is the worst writer in the class.

---

8. Jim is the better runner on the team.

---

9. These are the goodest cookies I've ever tasted.

---

10. Your tennis is better than mine, but Jeff's is the best.

---

11. We read Jill's play, Richard's poem, and Dave's story; however, Dave's was the best.

---

12. I went to California, Arizona, and Colorado last summer, and I thought Arizona was better.

---

13. Fran likes the Beatles better than the Beach Boys.

---