

SPLIT INFINITIVES

The following sentences contain split infinitives. Rewrite the sentences so they are less awkward.

1. She tried to not carelessly hurt the frog.

2. You should try to, if you can, run a mile every day.

3. We agreed to once and for all settle the disagreement.

4. Because her parents argued so frequently, they decided to permanently separate.

5. It is helpful to immediately send your transcript to the college you want to attend.

6. You have to willingly accept the idea that you will never get good grades unless you do homework.

7. The bartender asked the students to immediately show their licenses.

8. The town council voted to immediately abolish curfews in the village.

9. You can begin to, if you have the time, jog two miles each morning before school.

10. She said to not talk during the exam.

11. The coach said to relax and to not worry.

12. She didn't feel free to entirely be herself.

13. I would like to quickly leave for the parade.
