

A PROBLEM

THESIS: _____
is a problem that needs to be solved for many reasons. There are several possible solutions, but the most practical one seems to be _____, although it might be difficult to bring about this solution.

I. _____
is a problem that exists in our society.

A. The background of the problem includes _____

B. The causes of the problem are _____

C. The details of the problem are _____

II. This problem needs to be solved.

A. One reason is _____

B. Another reason is _____

C. If it is not solved, _____

III. There are several solutions.

A. One solution is _____

B. Another solution is _____

C. The third solution is _____

IV. The most practical solution is _____

A. The first step in the solution is _____

B. The second step in the solution is _____

C. The third step in the solution is _____

V. This solution could be brought about if enough effort were made.

A. People would need to _____

B. They would also need to _____

C. Some might even need to _____